Speak Life

A group of frogs was traveling through the woods looking for a bigger pond when two of them fell into a very deep hole. The other frogs crowded around, and when they saw just how deep the hole was they shook their heads and started calling to the two frogs at the bottom that they were as good as dead. The two frogs ignored the shouting and with all their might kept trying to jump up out of the hole. The other frogs jeered at them and told them to give up as their efforts were useless. Finally, one of the frogs stopped jumping and, panting heavily, fell on his side. He lay still and soon died. The other frog continued to jump as hard as he could. The crowd of frogs yelled at him to stop the pain and just give up and die. He jumped even harder, and finally made it out of the top of the hole. When he got out, the other frogs were astonished and asked him, "Didn't you hear us?" The frog look puzzled and asked them to repeat what they had just said because he was a bit deaf. He thought they had been shouting encouragement to him! There is power in the tongue. An encouraging word to someone in difficult circumstances can lift them up and help them to make it through another day. Destructive words, on the other hand, can be all it takes to deprive them of hope and life. The power of words is much greater than we may think. Be careful what you say. Speak life to those who cross your path. The person who makes the effort to encourage another is special indeed.

PSA 2012: Thank You, Speakers!

As we approach our PSA Pledge Weekend on February 11 and 12, We Are Called to live our lives and our faith in our walk with our Lord, Jesus Christ. The past two weekends you heard from some very special speakers who are truly called in faith, and listened as they shared the works of their faith in their various ministries right here at St. Norbert.

We want to extend our thanks to our PSA speakers and acknowledge them for their contributions of time and talents:

Faith Formation & Enrichment

R.C.I.A.

At our RCIA session on Wednesday, February 8 the topic will be Suffering and Evil in the world. The following week we will discuss the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick.

Any parishioner interested in these topics is welcome to attend these informative sessions in order to deepen their own understanding of the faith and to encourage our Catechumens and Candidates. We meet on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 in the Ministry Center Library.

Anyone interested in becoming a Catholic, or who has questions about the Catholic faith, is invited to come to our Inquiry sessions also conducted on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9 p.m. We meet in the Library for Opening Prayer, and then the Inquirers separate from the Catechumenate for their discussion group.

The RCIA process is variable depending upon the individual, but is usually a little more than a year process. For those who might be considering seeking baptism or entering the Church from another Christian denomination, a person should begin before Lent of 2012 to be considered for sacraments at Easter 2013. In other words, if you are thinking about this, it's time to start coming to our meetings!

Catholicism by Fr. Robert Barron

The third episode of this monthly series will be offered this Sunday morning February 5, at 10:15. This episode is called The Ineffable Mystery of God and discusses the theology of the Trinity. Please plan to attend.

Evening Bible Study

Our Tuesday evening Bible Study will continue on February 7 at 7:30 p.m. Mark was the earliest of the Gospels to be written and some think it is the easiest to understand. This is a good place to start for anyone just beginning to read the Bible, and for those who are more familiar with scripture, an opportunity for new insights. Please read Chapters 14 - 16 of Mark prior to our gathering.

Wondering Why

The Gospels of last Sunday and this present Jesus as a very busy man, teaching in the synagogue, healing all the sick who come to him, and casting away demons. Into the night, people are coming to him in need of healing and wholeness and he receives them with compassion and cures them. We are told then, that early in the morning, before the sun came up, Jesus went away to a deserted place to pray.

We might wonder what Jesus' prayer was. Did he pray for those he had cured, for their ongoing health? Did he pray that the demons he had cast out, perhaps demons of addictions, despair, fear, hatred would not return? Did he pray that his mission would continue to be successful? Did he pray for the energy to keep up with the demands on him? Perhaps all of those things and more were included in his prayer. We will never know, but we can notice a few things about Jesus' prayer.

Jesus gets up very early, before dawn and he goes to a deserted place. He spends a good deal of time with other people: disciples, people who need healing, curiosity seekers, those who try to test him; but for his prayer time, he needs time alone, so he gets up before others will be around and goes to someplace alone. He seeks silence and solitude for his prayer. Perhaps he just sits quietly in that silence and solitude, embraced by the Father's love and knowing that he does not need to ask for anything, but only to be one in love with the Father, and everything he needs will be given to him.

Later, when the disciples ask Jesus how to pray, he instructs them with words which have been passed on to us as the Our Father prayer remembered in the Gospel of Matthew. In that prayer, we come before God as his children, praise him, make our request for the needs of the day, seek forgiveness, protection from evil and the coming of God's kingdom on earth. It is a good example of the elements of prayer, but in another place, Jesus says, "When you pray, go into your room and close the door, pray to your Father in secret and he who hears in secret will hear you and reward you."

Jesus was familiar both with vocal prayer and with contemplative prayer, and instructs his disciples in both. Conversational prayer, or speaking in words to God is important. We can use memorized prayers such as the Our Father, or speak from our own hearts from the joys or concerns of our own lives. We can tell God what we are grateful for, what is causing anxiety, what our hopes and dreams may be. But this can be one sided. It is difficult to have a conversation with someone who does all the talking and doesn't pause to hear the other person's response. The same is true of prayer. We also need that alone time in silence and solitude to listen to what God has to say to us.

God speaks to those who are listening. It will seldom come as a voice from the sky, as apparently happened to Samuel in the reading a few weeks back, but rather as a quiet insight, a verse from scripture that comes to mind, a new perspective on a problem that was not apparent before. It may come as a refreshing breeze across one's face or the sound of birdsong that brings with it a sigh of appreciation. God may speak by reminding a person of something someone said to them, or something they read at an earlier time. Sometimes no words or sounds are needed at all, but simply the awareness of a Presence and of being deeply loved.

Jesus was not too busy to pray both in words, and in silence. He knew it was necessary for his mission, for his own relationship with the Father, and probably for his own peace of mind and energy to keep on going. He tried to get his disciples to understand this too. Whatever they were to do in his name, prayer was to be at the beginning and ending of it, that all that is done in Jesus' name might in itself be a prayer.

Palabras de Vida

Un grupo de ranas iban por todo el bosque en busca de un charco más grande cuando súbitamente dos de ellas caen dentro de un hoyo bien profundo. Las otras ranas rodearon el hoyo y cuando vieron lo profundo que era hicieron un gesto de frustración con su cabeza y le gritaron a las ranas que estaban en el fondo que era imposible sacarlas. Las dos ranas, ignorando toda la gritería de sus compañeras, seguían intentando saltar fuera del hoyo con todas sus fuerzas. Las otras ranas se burlaban de ellas diciéndoles que se dieran por vencidas, pues todos sus esfuerzos serían inútiles. Por fin una de las ranas dejó de saltar y jadeando fuertemente cayó de lado; unos segundos más tarde murió. La otra rana continuó saltando tan alto como podía. Las demás ranas le gritaban que dejara de sufrir, se diera por vencida y se resignara a morir; pero la rana en el hoyo trataba aún más hasta que por fin su salto la sacó afuera. Las ranas quedaron asombradas y le preguntaron: "¿Es que no nos oías?" La rana estaba un tanto confundida y les pidió que repitieran lo que acababan de decir pues estaba un poco sorda. ¡Ella pensó que las ranas que estaban arriba le gritaban para darle ánimo! La lengua tiene mucho poder. Una palabra de aliento a alguien que pasa por una situación difícil puede levantarle su espíritu para poder seguir un día más. Las palabras destructivas, por otro lado, bien pueden descorazonar y quitarle toda esperanza a una persona. El poder de las palabras es mucho mayor de lo que podemos imaginar. Ten cuidado con lo que dices. Ofrece palabras vivificantes a aquellos con los que te cruces en el camino. La persona que hace un esfuerzo para animar a otra es verdaderamente especial.
